

Kim Grant, Biography 2024

Kim Grant is the former director of the Endangered Places Program for Colorado Preservation, Inc. (CPI), a statewide nonprofit historic preservation organization. He is a retired historian with over 40 years' experience in state and local government service and nonprofit development and management. He is also a former high school social studies teacher with a passion for late 19th and early 20th century history. He formerly worked for the Kansas Main Street Program, Denver Public Library, Lower Downtown (LoDo) District, Historic Denver, Inc, the City of Arvada, and CPI. Mr. Grant is a Kansas native who has lived in Colorado for 33 years and resides in Denver with his wife Mira Zevin.